

Thinking about introducing office coffee to your workplace, upgrading your current system or just wondering what else is out there, you've come to the right place. Let us listen to your wish list and then we can provide you with several options. Thirty years ago, the three burner was the primary office coffee solution. Now there are dozens of options and we can sort them out for you. We've been doing this since 1969 and have a lot of expertise to offer. It all starts with a phone call to 631-794-1910 or email info@galaxiecoffee.com. Let's get started today!
